The IRA killed dad, and then mum died of a broken heart

This is the headline of an article published in the Belfast Newsletter. Read it [here.]

The memories of the victims of Martin McGuinness, the terrorist murderer and his companions in crime, are a stark contrast to the synthetic picture painted by IRA propagandists, headed up by Gerry Adams.

The "peace-making" he is now heralded for after his death, is a double deceit.

The 'peace' was fraudulent and so was McGuinness's so-called change of heart.

It has been rightly said that he engaged in a process which was designed simply to save his own neck.

It is so vexing to hear the words of those who were/are beguiled by the 'charm' of McGuinness in which they paint him as some sort of saint!!

I have no doubt that eternity will reveal that McGuinness died as he lived - an unrepentant killer and leader of killers.

The essence of the gospel is stated by the Lord Jesus as He commissioned His apostles.

"And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things," Luke 24:46-48.

The thief on the cross, converted to faith in Christ in the closing hours of his life, did what every true convert will do. He publicly repudiated his former life, rebuking his former companion in crime for his wicked words against the Saviour, acknowledged his guilt and confessed faith in Christ as Lord.

He was given assurance that he would go to be with Christ when he died. Repentance and dying with an assurance of heaven are ever linked in Scripture. Luke 23:39-43.

The family of McGuinness, along with all who attended his funeral, were told the he had gone to heaven and would rise amongst the saved on the day of resurrection.

Without hesitation we call that a lie and condemn the priests and all false prophets who have perpetuated this deceit throughout the centuries in Ireland.

Such a fabrication is a wickedness that is equalled only by the crimes of the likes of McGuinness!

The Shorter Catechism states just what true repentance is:

"Q87:What is repentance unto life?

A: Repentance unto life is a saving grace, whereby a sinner, out of a true sense of his sin, and apprehension of the mercy of God in Christ, doth, with grief and hatred of his sin, turn from it unto God, with full purpose of, and endeavour after, new obedience."

Among the last public words of McGuinness were statements declaring that he regretted nothing.

"Martin McGuinness has said he doesn't regret fighting with the IRA during the Troubles after he stepped down from frontline politics because of ill health." - Daily Mail, 19th January 2017.

His own words condemn him.
